SCAA Anti-Trust Policy

SCAA is committed to complying with all applicable anti-trust laws and regulations. All meetings and activities of the association shall therefore avoid any discussions of pricing, individual company business plans or strategy, the allocation of specific clients or geography amongst competitors, or any other subjects considered proprietary in nature.

The commitment to adhering to this guidance, and to furthermore avoid any behavior which could be either interpreted or perceived to be in potential violation of any applicable Anti-Trust laws; is the responsibility of all SCAA staff, directors, members, committee members and individuals.

Anti-Trust Reminders: No Discussions Regarding...

- Future or past pricing practices
- Profitability and the determination of fair or appropriate levels
- Changing market prices, credit terms or discounting strategies
- Allocating markets by specific clients or geography
- Targeting competitors for unfair pricing or sales practices
- Proprietary wage, benefit or other related information, unless it is specifically part of a SCAA approved and sanctioned survey
- Specific company's business or future plans, except public knowledge
- Excluding competitors from joining, unless non-compliance with SCAA acceptance parameters

Our Mission

As the voice of Spill Response Professionals, SCAA represents a broad coalition of emergency responders, manufacturers and environmental firms who collectively address Industry challenges, in order to strengthen and improve our nation's response community.
